

Mjejane Bush Camp

GAME RESERVE HOLIDAYING AT ITS BEST

Mjejane Game Reserve – a place where you can fall asleep to the sound of hippos snuffling in the grass and wake to the “Dawn Patrol” of elephant making their steady way through the surrounding bushveld.

Set on the edge of the Crocodile River, this is just the place to sneak off on a safari holiday for two, three...or more. There is more than enough space here for families and friends, thanks to the carefully considered self-catering rooms and suites, ranging from one to four bedrooms.

Each space is fully equipped with a kitchen, lounge area for family dining, and floor-to-ceiling windows leading out to a deck with an outside braai (BBQ).

Expect effortless comfort when you’re relaxing indoors and great adventures when you head out into the bush.

Guided game drives top the list, running like clockwork in the early morning and late afternoon. The experienced guides at Mjejane Bush Camp double up as expert storytellers, sharing tales about the area's plants and animals and their sacred significance to the local people.

Surrounded by riverine forest, this affordable family camp in the Kruger lies within the bounds of the elusive leopard, prides of lion and a stunning variety of birdlife, from African green pigeons fluttering among leaves in search of wild fruit, to the colourful flashes of the Purple-crested lourie in flight. There really is no better place to re-connect with nature, and each other.

The Dream Xplorers Passport at Mjejane is a little safari-goers gateway to many more activities at this self-catering Kruger camp. Our younger guests can earn mini-ranger badges and win prizes for completing creepy-crawly bug walks and spoor identification classes.

This is South African hospitality at its most heartfelt, and the best part, is that it won’t break the bank
